04/ Executive Summary

06/ Mapping the markets

12/ Bond yields and equities may keep the uptrend for another two to three weeks, but watch out thereafter for falling yields and weak equities until mid-March

19/ Timing and Tactical Insight

US Treasury yield should top out mid Q1 and retrace into the Spring

26 / Timing and Tactical Insight

Equity markets probably continue higher until late Q1, and then again in H2 this year.

Focus on making products & services people truly love, so that the total economic pie is bigger, instead of engaging in zero-sum/negative-sum corporate power struggles. This is the good future."

33/ Gold is remaining under pressure as yields and DXY rise in the short-term; A trough should take place soon followed by a significant gold recovery

37 / Timing and Tactical Insight

Gold under pressure for another few weeks – new highs are then expected into Q2

44/ It's unlikely that the US Dollar weakens significantly from here; we expect USD to strengthen by H2 2021

47 / Timing and Tactical Insight

The US Dollar may bounce from late Q1 into Q2

55/ Splicing the markets: Pro-cyclical commodities could keep their momentum into late Q1
